2.4 (E) Different rallies and awareness programs Go Green Campaign, AIDS awareness Programmes, Health and hygiene programmes, Covid-19 vaccination programme.

The purpose of Educational rallies is to educate people about various issues and empower them with knowledge. These rallies are often organized to create awareness about Voters Day and Environmental issues. Educational rallies are an excellent way to promote education and encourage people to take action towards creating a better society.

Education is the key to success, and it is essential to empower people with knowledge. Educational rallies are one of the most effective ways of spreading knowledge and awareness about various issues. Educational rallies are events that bring together people from different backgrounds to learn and discuss important topics. These rallies are often organized by educational institutions, non-profit organizations, and government bodies to educate people about various issues such as health, environment, and social issues.

Gender sensitivity : is the process by which people are made aware of how gender plays a role in life through their treatment of others, Gender relations are present in all institutions worldwide and gender sensitivity especially manifests in recognizing privilege and discrimination around gender; women are generally seen as disadvantaged in society. Major strides in international gender sensitivity awareness have been made in recent years, which is helping to improve living and working conditions for members of all gender groups, as well as more effective medical care, Gender sensitivity trainings are used to educate people, usually employees, to become more aware of and sensitive to gender in their lives or workplaces. This type of training is becoming more popular in the United States, particularly in areas of the service industry, such as healthcare and education.
