A warm welcome to Vilas Kulkarni and all participants was extended by Amar, a second-year B.Ed. student. Following this, Dr, Rajshekhar Almaje the respected Principal of the college, delivered the presidential address, underlining the significance of the workshop in honing Communicative English skills.

The workshop was formally inaugurated by Vilas Rao Kulkarni, who further expounded on the objectives and expectations. Subsequently, the students from the B.Ed. 2022-23 delved into five meticulously crafted modules, each addressing various facets of Communicative English. After each presentation, an interactive session opened up, enabling participants to engage in open discussions. Vilas Rao Kulkarni the resource person, generously shared her opinions and offered constructive suggestions on each of the topics presented, fostering an environment of learning and growth.

The workshops provided a valuable platform for students to voice their doubts and seek clarification, nurturing a spirit of inquiry and curiosity. It facilitated their journey towards enhancing their proficiency in the English language, a critical skill in the realm of education and beyond.

The event was wrapped up with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Ashwini, a second-year B.Ed. student, expressing gratitude to all involved and acknowledging the importance of enhancing language proficiency, not only in academic pursuits but also in the broader spectrum of life's interactions.
