2.5.4

Personal and career development of the faculty members continues to be a thrust area at the Guru Nanak College of Education Bidar. The teachers ensure that they undertake a number of professional development initiatives to keep themselves professionally updated. The institution plays a very active role in providing modern infrastructural and ICT facilities like personal cabins with individual computers, internet connectivity, and system for seamless communication and coordination with the Principal, colleagues and students.

1. In house discussions on current developments and issues in education:

The teachers focus on making teaching-learning process student centric, interactive and participative, based on classroom lectures enriched with ICT facility followed by discussions, seminars and students' presentations. They follow a well-planned academic calendar for the session and also prepare extensive annual teaching plans in their own subjects to keep the teaching –learning process on rails and finish it in time without any disruptions. For this they develop effective techniques based on their past experiences by conducting and attending seminars, webinars, workshops, lectures, conferences diverse topics like curriculum development, teaching learning and evaluation, research management. Faculty members are encouraged to share information and experiences, which they have gained while participating in any event outside the college with their colleagues.

2. Share information with colleagues and with other institutions on policies and regulations:

The faculty members attending refresher and orientation programmes, national conferences, seminars and training programmes organized by other institutes, universities and research organizations are fully sponsored by the institution. They also pursue M..Phil. and Ph.D. programmes to upgrade their knowledge and qualification for upward mobility in the organization. They can avail study leave if they wish to engage in full-time research activity. They also foray into the areas of publication of research papers, book chapters, edited books and articles in peer review journals for earning API scores. Last but not the least, the Principal and the faculty, due to longstanding experience, expertise and qualifications, are members of different bodies, editorial boards and provide consultancy in their own areas of specializations. This lends credibility to the quality of faculty as experts at the state, national and international levels.
